

"Works in Paper" by Sherri McDonald

The Canvas Art Gallery will feature the exhibit "Works in Paper" by local artist Sherri McDonald for the month of March. Join us Friday, March 5th from 4:30-7:30pm for the exhibit opening or stop by during our normal gallery hours: Mondays 12-8pm, Tuesdays-Thursdays 10am-8pm, Fridays-Sundays 10am-5pm.

Sherri McDonald's Art Exhibit "Works in Paper" is on display in the gallery through March!

New Day Hab Classes at the Canvas!

Starting in March, the Canvas will be offering more classes! Join us after school on Mondays from 3:30-5pm for pottery or Sundays for photography, movie-making, and pottery (contact us for details and to sign up: 586-1750 or info@canvasarts.org). Starting April 10, join us for Music and Movement in Saturdays from 2:00-3:30pm.

Community Saori Weaving

On Saturday, March 27 from 10am-1pm, learn about Saori weaving and help us get ready for Earth Day by contributing to our community weaving project. Drop by the Canvas and try your hand at weaving. The community piece that will be created out of this free family event will be used in upcoming Earth Day bag making projects in April.

Canvas Closure Mar. 29

The Canvas will be closed for Seward's Day on Monday, March 29th. Please mark it on your calendars!

Marimba with Kutandara

The Canvas is very excited to welcome the band Kutandara from Boulder, Colorado to our studio for a special week of marimba classes (Mar. 21-26). During our regular classes 9am-noon & 2:30-3:30, artists in the day habilitation program can work with the band learning songs and games from Africa. The Kutandara Center is dedicated to offering instruction in music from Southern Africa on Zimbabwean-style marimbas. Marimbas are wooden xylophone-like instruments that produce a beautiful sound.

Join us March 21-26 for special Marimba classes with Kutandara!
